ANTI – RAGGING COMMITTEE
MINUTES OF THE MEETING (7.2.2022)

The Anti – Ragging Committee meeting was presided by the Principal and chairman of Anti-Ragging Committee Dr.C.J.Venkatakrisnan. All the members including the Vice – Principal and secretary of the committee Dr.S.Balagopal were present in the meeting. This was the first meeting for the year 2022. There were no complaints of ragging from the students. The fresh first year students are yet to join the college. They are expected to probably join the college by April. The arrangements for providing anti – ragging awareness were discussed. Protocol of the Induction program for the first year students was discussed. There were changes in the committee members list because certain members left the college. The Anti - ragging squad members for particular areas like Bus, Hostel and public places remains the same. One of the squad member Dr. Prabhu Gandhi who was staying in the hostel and taking care of the ragging actions in the hostel left the college. The display boards are not updated with the new members list and their contact numbers. Some of the student members were not present in the meeting.

Action taken:

Two Anti – ragging awareness programs will be organized as soon as the fresh first year batch students join the college. Dr.Prabhu Gandhi was replaced by Dr. David as he is staying nearby to the college. The display boards with the new members list will be updated as Dr. Praveen has been allotted to find out the places where these display boards are placed and inform the stores to update those boards in all the places. Some student members were not present for the meeting as they had classes.
