

From

Dr.P.Sai Krishna

HOD,

Department of Oral Pathology

Tagore Dental College and Hospital

To ,

The Chairman

Dental Education Unit

Tagore Dental College and Hospital

Sub: INTERDISIPLINARY COURSE REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2020

Respected sir,

We department of Oral Pathology have conduted a course on tooth morphology for post graduate students of department of prosthodontics, department of conservative and Endodontics to have strong knowledge in tooth morphology for the year 2020. We are submitting the report for the same.

Thanking you,

Your's truly

P. Sai Krishna
03/Feb/2021

(Dr.P.Sai Krishna)

HEAD OF DEPARTMENT
Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Pathol.
TAGORE DENTAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL

TAGORE DENTAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL

DEPARTMENT OF ORAL AND MAXILLOFACIAL PATHOLOGY

INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSE REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2020

Department of Oral pathology conducted a Tooth Carving course for Post graduate students of Conservative and Endodontics and Post graduate students of Prosthodontics from 30.9.20 to 31.10.20. Student were trained to carve maxillary and mandibular permanent teeth under the staff guidance. Theory topics covered in the course were introduction to dental anatomy and tooth morphology, Introduction to tooth morphology terminologies, Brief overview on tooth chronology and measurements of permanent tooth, and assessment of theory knowledge by test and discussion. Students were assessed individually and grading were recorded in the respective log book. Certificates will be issued at the end of the course. No.of students attended: 5.

