REPORT:

The domain of professional ethics within the realm of specialized dentistry pertains to the set of expectations regarding the ethical conduct and principles, both personally and professionally, that are anticipated from individuals practicing dentistry. The committee dedicated to the well-being of students experiences a great sense of satisfaction and joy in orchestrating a session focused on the intricate topic of "Professional Ethics within the Dental Field designed specifically for the cohort of undergraduate students" under their purview. Dr. Shivani Siva Sakthivel, serving in the capacity of Research Coordinator at Tagore Medical College and Hospital, delivered a comprehensive discourse and presentation delving into the nuances and intricacies of ethical considerations within the practice of dentistry.

REPORT:

The domain of professional ethics within the realm of specialized dentistry pertains to the set of expectations regarding the ethical conduct and principles, both personally and professionally, that are anticipated from individuals practicing dentistry. The committee dedicated to the well-being of students experiences a great sense of satisfaction and joy in orchestrating a session focused on the intricate topic of "Professional Ethics within the Dental Field designed specifically for the cohort of Postgraduate students" under their purview. Dr. Shivani Siva Sakthivel, serving in the capacity of Research Coordinator at Tagore Medical College and Hospital, delivered a comprehensive discourse and presentation delving into the nuances and intricacies of ethical considerations within the practice of dentistry.

REPORT:

Dental practise management is an area where students generally lack knowledge. Hence, our college's Students Welfare Committee hosted an orientation program on "Dental Practice Management" for our students, with Prof. Dr. Gururaj A, MDS, President of the Indian Prosthodontic Society's TamilNadu section. He gave a lecture on how to build a good practice and talked about work ethics which was beneficial to all the students. The students actively participated in the lecture. The program was useful for the upcoming dentists.
