

CONSERVATIVE AND ENDODONTICS DAY

Guest Speaker: Dr. Nandini Suresh, Mds

on the occasion of conservative and endodontics day, a programme was conducted on behalf of conservative and endodontics department. an oratorical competition was conducted in the auditorium for first year students until the interns. two students from each class were selected and were given two minutes to speak on, "pal pona sol pochu". it was judged by Dr. Sai krishna HOD dept of Oral Pathology and dr. bhuvaneshwari reader from department of periodontics.

Followed by this there was a talk by Dr. Nandini Suresh on, "right ways to publish". It was a successful event as over 200 students, interns and staff attended the program.